

Descendants of John Sherran

Generation 1

1. JOHN¹ SHERRAN was born about 1649 in Ayrshire, Scotland. He married MARY ?.

Notes for John Sherran:

"The Sharon Family History" - pg 14

From what William Brynes Putman, Jr. was able to determine through old wills and tax records, there were two brothers, William Sherran and Thomas Sherran, who came together from Ulster to Philadelphia in the early to mid 1720's. They made what arrangements were necessary for lands in the new country and moved to the Township of Sadsbury in what was then Chester County, Pennsylvania.

It is interesting to note that the eldest sons of both Thomas and William Sherran were named John. It was very common to name the first male after the father's father. If this is the case, then the father of these two men was John Sherran. There is no record of John, the father, coming to America with his sons, but it does give us a name to try and trace back in Ulster.

John Sherran and Mary ? had the following children:

 - i. WILLIAM² SHARON was born about 1675 in Ayrshire, Scotland. He died on 20 Mar 1742 in Sadsbury Twp., Lancaster Co., PA. He married MARY ?.
 - ii. THOMAS SHARON was born about 1680 in Ayrshire, Scotland. He died on 15 Apr 1737 in Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania, USA. He married Agnes ??? about 1705 in Ulster Co., Ireland. She was born about 1685 in Ulster Co., Ireland. She died after 1740 in Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania, USA.

Generation 2

2. WILLIAM² SHARON (John¹ Sherran) was born about 1675 in Ayrshire, Scotland. He died on 20 Mar 1742 in Sadsbury Twp., Lancaster Co., PA. He married MARY ?.

Notes for William Sharon:

"The Sharon Family History" - , pg 18,76-77

William was the first of this Sharon Lineage to arrive in America. From reading his will and from some guesswork, this was the William from Ayrshire and Ulster referred to in Bancroft's Chronicles. William Putman, Jr. felt that there had to be at least a shred of truth in these old published works, but could not pin the line down until he found the actual old will in the basement archives of the Lancaster County Courthouse in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

It is assumed that William Sherran was indeed of Scottish stock and that he, or more than likely his parents or Grandparents, immigrated Ulster, Northern Ireland. Many of these people came to America for many reasons, most likely economic.

As William Sherran had grandchildren by the time he left his will in 1741, it is assumed that he was probably in his late fifties or sixties at that time. This would place his birth sometime in the 1680's and more than likely in Ulster, Ireland.

He was more than likely married about 1700 while living in Ireland and brought his young family over to America in the mid 1720's. By this time he would have been around forty and undoubtedly married. His will shows his wife to be Mary Sherran, maiden name unknown. Mary was still alive at the time of his death in early 1742.

William Sherran and his family probably arrived in the Port of Philadelphia around 1725 and it seems they headed immediately westward into what is now Lancaster County. This was very typical of the Scotch-Irish immigrants at the time.

His will indicates that he was a farmer all his life. This was, of course, the most common occupation of the early Scotch-Irish settlers in America. The only reason that they came to America was to be free in their Presbyterian religion and to obtain reasonably priced lands to farm and support their families.

William Sherran lived and died in Sadsbury township which is on the eastern birder of Lancaster County. This was pretty much the western extent of Civilization in the 1720's and 1730's.

The will of William mentions his wife Mary who also signed and acknowledged the will. The will was witnessed by a John Sherran who was undoubtedly the surviving eldest son of his brother Thomas Sherran. This John was also living in Sadsbury on an adjacent farm.

The will lists his children who were: William this eldest; James and Hugh, his other two sons and his daughters , Gresall and Jean. He also mentions his son in law, Robert line and granddaughters Martha & Margaret McCallpin. These last two mentions indicate that he had two other married daughters.

William Sherran wrote his will on May 13th, 1741 and it was proved on March 25th (New Year's Day) of 1742. He more than likely died sometime in the Month of March 1741/2. William Sherran junior was granted administration papers on March 25th, and was required to provide the court with an inventory of the state by April 25, 1742.

The Will of William Sherran 1741

The following will is taken from the Lancaster County Will Book A, Page 69. It is recorded under the name William Shennan, but again the actual writing shows it to be William Sherran. It is signed by both William and his wife Mary.

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN. May the 13th One Thousand Seven Hundred and forty one Anno Dom.

I William Sherran of Sadsbury township and County of Lancaster, farmer, being sick and weak of body but perfect mind and memory thanks be given unto God therefore calling to mind the mortality of my body and that it is appointed for all men once to dye. Notes for Thomas Sharon:

"The Sharon Family History", pg 15,75

Thomas Sherran appears to be a married taxpayer as early as 1727 in Sadsbury township of what was then Chester County, Pennsylvania. The rest of what is known is from the wills these two brothers left. Thomas' in 1737 and William's in 1741.

Both these wills were found in the very early records of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Lancaster was formed as a county in 1729 and Sadsbury township was then included in this new county.

The will of Thomas Sherran made no mention of William or his children, nor did William's make any reference to Thomas' family. There it is believed they were brothers rather than any father and son relationship.

Thomas Sherran (or sometimes spelled Thomas Sharran) was a farmer who spent the remainder of his life after reaching America in Sadsbury Township of Lancaster County.

He wrote his will on April 4th, 1737 and must have died shortly afterwards as the will was proved in court on April 27th of the same year. The will was witnessed by William McClure, Samuel Irwin and Margaret Carnachan. The McClures were to go with William Sherran to Pennsborough in Cumberland County in the 1740's.

Thomas Sherran's will indicated that his wife, Agness Sherran was still alive. Maiden name unknown. He also listed his children. His eldest son, John Sherran was to receive half of his farm and his son Samuel was to receive the other half when he came of age.

This indicated that Samuel was still under the age of sixteen in 1737. The will also mentions two daughters; Anna who was under the age of sixteen and her older sister Margaret who was married to a Thomas at the time. The will also mentions his youngest son Thomas.

It seems that all of Thomas Sherran's sons remained in Chester County at least through the Revolution. Records are spotty, but they pop up through the 1750's 1760 and in the Lancaster Militia during the Revolution.

The Will of Thomas Sharran 1737

The following will is recorded in the Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Will Book A, Page 26. It is listed as being the will of Thomas Shannan, but from the writing it is obviously Thomas Sharran, The will was proved in Lancaster Court on April 27, 1737.

APRIL ye, fourth in the Name of God Amen, Anno Domm. One Thousand Seven Hundred and Thirty Seven. I Thomas Sharran of Sadsbury Township and County of Lancaster, Farmer, being sick and weak of body but of perfit mind and memory thanks be given unto God, therefore call into mind the mortality of my body and that it is appointed for all men once to die I do now make and Ordain this my last Will and Testament that is to say I recommend my Soul unto the hands of God that gave it And my Body to the Earth to be buried at the discretion of my Executes. An as for Such Worldly goods as it hath pleased God to bless me with I now dispose and bequeath in manner and form following.

- iv. SAMUEL SHARON was born about 1725.
- v. THOMAS SHARON was born about 1730 in Chester County, Pennsylvania, USA.

Notes for Thomas Sharon:

(from The Sharon Family History, pg 16)

This information is uncertain. There was a Thomas Sheron who served in the Cumberland Militia in 1782, but not certain this is the same Thomas. There was a Thomas who was listed as being married on the 1768 Tax list for West Caln Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania.

The only reference found is that in the court records there was a Thomas Sheren died intestate (without leaving a will) in West Caln, Chester County in 1803. Do not know if this is the same Thomas or not, in 1803 he would have been into his eighties and few people lived that age in those days.

There is a record of a Thomas Sherran serving in the Lancaster Militia. This is probably a younger Thomas and it is quite possible that he was killed fighting. There is nothing else on Thomas after the Revolutionary War time period.

Generation 3

4. WILLIAM W.³ SHARON JR. (William², John¹ Sherran) was born between 1700-1710 in Antrim, Ulster Co., N. Ireland. He died on 02 Mar 1752 in Hopewell, E. Pennsborough, Cumberland Co., PA. Notes for WILLIAM SHARON(SHERRAN/SHERRON), JR.:
[JPendergrass.FTW]

(from The Sharon Family History, pg 23-24,78-80)

William Sherron lived with his parent, worked the family farm and inherited their farm in Sadsbury in 1742. He had taken out a land Warrant in Philadelphia for lands west of the Susquehanna in Pennsborough Township just before his father's death, so it appears he planned to move west. He probably remained at home as his father was sick and remained there until his death.

He seem to have left there shortly afterwards as he appears in Pennsborough township as a witness to the will of James Buchanan in March of 1746/7. Pennsboro at the time was in Lancaster County. What was to become Cumberland county in 1750 was divided into two townships, Pennsborough to the east and Hopewell to the west and from 1729 to 1750 they were included in Lancaster County.

In a 1879 HISTORY OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, by the Rev. Conway Wing, the Sherrans are listed among the first few dozen settlers of the Cumberland Valley and the lands west of the Susquehanna and into the country near Conodoquinet River.

William Sherron had obtained a warrant for his lands in Pennsborough on December 22, 1740 from the land offices in Philadelphia. This land was left in his will to his son Hugh and it remained in the Sherron family until 1766. William lived and farmed this land from the time he arrived in Cumberland until his death in March of 1751/2.

William Sherron may well have been married twice. His will mentions his the living wife, Margaret Sherron. In addition it refers to his three youngest children borne by her. This may simply have been a reference to the fact these were quite young, or it may have meant that the older children were borne by a wife of previous marriage. There are very few records of wives dying, unless they survived their husbands and left wills of their own. The question as to whether or not William had one or two wives cannot be answered. Life on the frontier was quite hard and it was very common for widowers to remarry soon after the death of wives as a strong female was an essential part of family life in those days.

The Will of William Sherron 1750

The following Will was obtained from the Cumberland County, Pennsylvania Historical Archives in the Cumberland Count Will Book A, Pages 12and 13.

William could not write and so signed this will and the annexed codicil with a 'W' as his mark, his wife, Margaret, signed with a 'P' which is assumed for Peggy as she must have been called.

Notes for HUGH SHERRON(SHARRON):

[JPendergrass.FTW]

(from The Sharon Family History, pg 26-27,85)

Hugh Sherron inherited the family farm through the will of his father in 1752. The other sons already had their own places by that time.

Hugh later moved to Fermanagh township, Cumberland County (in what was later to become a part of Juanita County).

Generation 4 (con't)

June 30, 1766, Hugh Sharron, now living in Lost Creek, Fermanagh township, he sold the lands in East Pennsborough Which he inherited through his father's will to John Hudson. The land was 143p acres. James Sharron also signed this deed, possibly as a witness or as an administrator of his father's will of 1750. The land was along the Conodoquinet Creek and abutted the lands of Walter Buchanan on the north. This transaction is noted in the Cumberland County Deeds, Volume 1, Book B, Page 6.

Hugh Sherran had at least one son, Samuel, and probably he was the father of another Hugh.

There were two Hugh Sharrons in the area at the time of the Revolution. One who married Jane Barnhill and went to Kentucky and one who married Jane Sturgeon and their children went up into Canada after 1800.

This Hugh's son, Hugh, was the one that married Jane Barnhill. The other Hugh was James' son. Hugh Sharon and Jane Fisher had the following children:

UPDATED APRIL 1, 2013

THE SHARON FAMILY IN KENTUCKY

This section covers the family of Hugh Sharon and Jane Barnhill. Hugh was a son of Hugh Sharron and Jane Fisher from Juniata County Pennsylvania. After the Revolution, this family went westward about 1795 to Fayette County in Kentucky.

Most of the family remained in Kentucky, but one son, Robert Sharon, continued on westward in 1831 and settled in Brown County Illinois. Another son, John Sharon, moved to Fountain County Indiana about the same time.

HUGH SHARRON

Hugh Sharron was born in Fermanagh Township, Juniata County Pennsylvania in 1768.

There were two young Hugh Sharrons about the same age. One would have been the son of James Sharron and the other the son of Hugh Sharron his brother. Both James and Hugh were the sons of William and Margaret Sherron.

This Hugh Sharron was the son of Hugh. James' son Hugh seems to have gone with his brother William to the Westmoreland County area in the early 1790s.

Further evidence was shown in the section covering the senior Hugh Sharron. Here I showed how he was involved with Jane Fisher and she had a child, Hugh, by him who was raised by her parents and later her brother James Fisher. Since this Hugh Sharon and Jane Barnhill named a son James Fisher Sharon, the tie-in seems right. This Hugh Sharon in this section was the son of the Hugh Sharron who was a son of William Sharron and Margaret Chambers. His mom was Jane Fisher and he and the Fisher families all came out here to Kentucky together.

At any rate, this Hugh Sharron was born in 1768 in the Lost Creek Valley of Fermanagh Township in what was to become Juniata County. He served in the Revolution in the Cumberland Militia. After the War, he returned to Lost Creek and married Jane Barnhill some time around 1790. Jane was born in Bucks County Pennsylvania in 1772, and was a daughter of Samuel Barnhill and Jane Craig from Northern Ireland.

Hugh and Jane's first two children were born in Fermanagh Township; Samuel Sharon in 1792 and James Fisher Sharon in 1794.

Shortly thereafter, Hugh and most of the other branches of the Sharon family headed southwest to take up bounty lands. While several Sharon families settled for a while in Westmoreland and Fayette counties, Hugh and Jane seem to have headed further afield and ended up in Scott County Kentucky. Scott County is in north central Kentucky just below the Ohio border. They more than likely traveled by boat down the Ohio River.

Now comes an interesting part. There was a newspaper article in the SHARON (Pennsylvania) HERALD on Friday October 5, 1956 which investigated the origin of the name of the town, Sharon. A descendant of this Hugh Sharon, Harold Culbertson, stimulated interest in trying to prove that Sharon, Pennsylvania was named after his Hugh Sharon and not after the biblical Plains of Sharon as originally thought.

Further investigation indicated that although the town was formed in 1815 by William Budd, the first recorded deeds were handwritten in the name of Aaron. It is now believed that Aaron was in fact a misreading of the name Sharon and this early Sharon was the one who sold property to William Budd who built and named his Sharon Tavern after this early family. This fact was recorded apparently in a 1830 family bible of James Fisher Sharon.

This may well have been the case, but I tend to doubt it. By 1796 this Hugh Sharon and his wife, Jane, were in Fayette County Kentucky where their third child, John Sharon, was born in June of that year.

The 1800 Pennsylvania census shows a Hugh Sharran in Beaver County. Beaver and Mercer counties were both formed in 1800 out of Allegheny County. Sharon is in Mercer County. It would therefore seem to me that there was obviously a Hugh Sharon in the vicinity of Sharon, Pennsylvania in the 1790s, but that it could not have been the Hugh Sharon who was in Kentucky at the time.

The Hugh in the Sharon, Pennsylvania area had a son, also Hugh, who went just over the border into Trumbull County Ohio in the very early 1800s and appears there in the 1810 Ohio Census. This young Hugh Sharon's life was included in the section on the OHIO SHARONS.

Now...., back to Hugh and Jane. They remained in Fayette County Kentucky only a short time and then moved to adjacent Scott County. In fact they may not have moved as these two counties were established in the 1790s from VA counties and the borders may have been ill-defined at the time. The births of their next three children are all recorded as occurring in Scott County; Robert in 1798, Jane in 1800 and Nancy in 1804.

Hugh and Jane remained for the rest of their lives on their farm in Scott County Kentucky. Jane died sometime in the early 1840s and Hugh in early 1847. The will of Hugh Sharon was proved in court on June 21, 1847.

Notes for HUGH SHARON(SHARRON):
[JPendergrass.FTW]

(from The Sharon Family History, pg 97-98)

Hugh Sharron was born in Fermanagh Township. There were two young Hugh Sharrons about the same age. One would have been the son of James Sharron and the other the so of Hugh Sharron his brother. Both James and Hugh were the sons of William and Margaret Sherron.

It is belived that this Hugh Sharron was the son of Hugh. James' son Hugh seem to have gone with his brother William to the Fayette/Westmoreland area in the early 1790's.

At any rate, this Hugh Sharron was born in the 1760's in the Lost creek Valley of Fermanagh township in what was to become Juanita County. He served in the Revolution in the Cumberland Militia. After the War,he returned to Lost Creek and married Jane Barnhill sometime around 1790.

Descendants of Robert Barnhill
Samuel Barnhill Jr. was released from military service in Washington County, Pennsylvania in 1782. He and 2 brothers Robert and Daniel Barnhill are on the 1794 and 1795 tax records of Scott County, Kentucky. Jane, their sister who married Hugh Sharon, came to Scott County, Kentucky in 1797 from Mifflin County, Pennsylvania. In their trek to Kentucky it is thought that Sharon, Pennsylvania was named for Hugh Sharon (see Sharon, PA Herald paper October 5, 1956).

SHARON HERALD Sharon, Pennsylvania October 5 1956.

(Editor's note - in Mercer County; Pennsylvania. there is a city named Sharon, with a population of about 26,000. It was believed for years that the name had a Biblical reference, but during 1956 two reporters of the Sharon HAROLD instituted extensive research, and came up with facts which link Mercer County with Scott County, in an interesting and long forgotten bit of history. The following is their story:)

Folks in Juniata and Mifflin Counties in Pennsylvania are certain that Hugh Sharon, a lanky, dark-haired, blue-eyed farmer with a "voice like a bull", his wife, Jane Barnhill Sharon, their five children, and a horse and cow stopped in the Shenango Valley in 1796, and founded Sharon, Pa., before they trekked on into Kentucky. A family Bible treasured by Sharon descendants in Scott County, Ky, supports this claim.

In the Shenango valley, the popular concept has been that the name, Sharon, originated from the Plains of Sharon mentioned in the Bible. But there never had been a written record of this origination until 1930, when a United States government project group analyzed and printed a brochure on Pennsylvania place names.

Generation 5 (con't)

A follow-up assignment was tackled by four officials of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission, who split the state into quarters and surveyed the reasons for the naming of towns in the areas. The work was so immense that it was haphazard.

The tradition that Sharon, Pa., was named for Hugh Sharon, however, has been passed down through five generations of the Sharon family in Kentucky. James Fisher Sharon, son of Hugh recorded the fact in the family Bible in the 1830's. This Bible coupled with John Sharon was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania on June 19, 1796. He was married first to Elizabeth Richey, daughter of Captain John Richey, on September 26, 1820 in Scott County, Kentucky. They had seven children, one of which died in childbirth in 1823.

They moved to Fountain County Indiana near the town of Covington in the early 1830's. Here Elizabeth died on April 8, 1844.

John and Elizabeth had the following children:

William R. Sharon was born in Scott County, Kentucky in 1822 and married Nancy Pearson and after her death a widow, Mary J. Grady in 1879. He died September 2, 1915.

John Hugh Sharon was born in 1823 and married Margaret Rabb on November 13, 1851.

James T. Sharon was born on October 5, 1825 in Scott Count. He married Susan H. Dicken on July 22, 1851, James died on April 27, 1886.

Sarah (Sally) Sharon was born in the late 1820's and married Caleb Bennet on December 3, 1865 in Fountain County, Indiana.

Samule Sharon remained a bachelor all is life.

Ira Fisher Sharon was born in Fountain County, Indiana in 1837. He married Jane Armilde Bonar there on January 3, 1860. He died in 1920.

John Sharon remarried on July 2, 1846 to Rhoda Denton. There were no more children in this second marriage. Rhoda died in Covington on March 4, 1971 and John Sharon died there on October 16, 1881.

UPDATED APRIL 1, 2013

IRA FISHER SHARON

Ira Sharon was born in Fountain County Indiana in 1837.

Generation 7 (con't)

He began working as a blacksmith until he was about 21, when he moved back to Kentucky and operated a ferry and ran a farm with Joel Bonar. He fell in love with one of Joel's daughters while working with him.

He married Jane Armilda Bonar there on January 3, 1860. Right after they were married, they moved back to Fountain County Indiana.

In 1865, they returned to Kentucky to take over the old farm as Joel Bonar had died and his wife needed help running the place.

In 1890 Ira and Jane moved to Mt. Auburn, Indiana with their son George. It was here Ira died in 1920.

The children of Ira Sharon were:

WILLIAM HUGH SHARON born 1860 and died 3 days later.

JAMES ARDEN SHARON born about 1862 and died a year and a half later.

CHARLES JOEL SHARON born in 1864 and died in his eleventh month.

JOHN ALBERTUS SHARON born in 1867. He married Sallie M. Yelton on February 28, 1889 and after her death married Edith Davis.

ELIZABETH KATHERINE SHARON born in Kentucky about 1869 and married John Lewis Perry on November 20, 1890. Their children were:

Jane Perry married Clarence Kelly.
Bernard Perry married Elizabeth Pardi.
Sarah (Sally) Perry married William Kirby.
James Perry married Lucille Colbert.
Frances Perry married Timothy Kelly.
John Perry married Evelyn Kelly.
Henry Perry married Esther Kelly.
Helen Perry married Kirby Reinersman.
Joseph Perry married Ethel Faris.
Minnie Estella Perry

GEORGE LORENZO SHARON born in Kentucky November 18, 1873 and died in 1965. He married Minnie Hall April 4, 1899. She was born April 4, 1876 and died in 1965. They had four children:

William Hall Sharon born in 1900. He married Mary M. Cummins on January 15, 1922.
Fred Curtis Sharon born in 1902.
Robert Emsley Sharon born in 1904. He married Ann T. Brown.
Eugene Glee Sharon born in 1906.

SALLIE EVANGELINE SHARON was born in 1879. She married Albert Douglas Moore on March 11, 1899.

I'm not sure from where this came.

Mr. Sharon was a member of the Kentucky Legislature around the years 1902 or 1901.

Operated a ferry at Menzies for many years. This ferry was known as Bonar's Ferry. On account of the booms built by the Licking River Lumber Co. of Boston, the ford was not passable much of the time, hence the ferry. When the river was low, no charge was made for ferriage: when the water was too high to ford, a charge was made. The ferry was operated with a wire cable and Mr. Sharon attended the ferry when he located there.

Generation 7 (con't)

Mr. Sharon was born in 1837 and died in 1920. He, with his wife, who died in 1918, are buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery.
